

Strategy

Energy Policy

25.03.2019

As a company that operates in aluminum high pressure die casting sector and aims to make environmental and economical sustainability by continuously improving its energy performance in all its activities, we are committing;

- To ensure that an Energy Management System, which takes into account national, international standards and customer specific requests with ARPEK related parties & contexts, is used effectively in accordance with ARPEK strategies and objectives,
- To be an organization that complies with the national and international legal regulations and standards in force regarding Energy Management, Energy Use and Energy Consumption, Providing the necessary resources for the continuous improvement of the Energy Management System and energy performance in terms of compliance, competence and efficiency,
- To establish a cycle for the determination and periodic review of energy targets with the aim of sustainable energy, to provide the necessary resources to achieve the energy targets set,
- Energy; to increase energy awareness throughout ARPEK for sustainable consumption in production stages,
- To ensure the use of products and technologies to improve energy performance in product development, process design and production processes,
- To ensure the efficient supply and use of energy-efficient products and services that increase energy performance.