

Strategy

Occupational Health and Safety Scope

16.09.2021

- Arpek Occupational Health and Safety System operates according to the ISO 45001 standard, legal regulations and compliance obligations. Arpek has ADR hazardous material activity certificate & IATF 16949 Quality Certificate, ISO 50001 Energy Certificate and carries out occupational health and safety issues with sustainability team organization.
- This Occupational Health and Safety System covers the production and services of high-pressure die casted, machined & final assembly ready parts in our factory located in TOSB Automotive Subsidiary Industry Specialized Industrial Zone, lighting system company in the north, chemical company in the east, the truck park in the south and highway in the west.
- With this Occupational Health and Safety Management System, it is to identify the hazards and risks to occupational health and safety determined by considering the relevant parties, contexts and issues, and to minimize their negative effects within the scope of legal regulations and regulations.